SLAVERY AND HUMAN TRAFFICKING STATEMENT

Selecting Employees (Global policy);

This policy ensures checks are conducted during the recruitment process to ensure individuals have the legal ability to work in the geographic location.

Anti-Slavery (Geist Europe Ltd policy)

This policy supports our commitment to limiting the risk of modern slavery occurring within our own business or infiltrating our supply chains or any other business relationship.

Supplier adherence to the company values

Our Group's key supply chains are geographically based in USA, China and Europe, sourcing components for our products. Respecting human rights in the supply chain is ultimate our supplier's responsibility, as customers however we aim to adopt measures to clearly communicate our expectations to our suppliers.

Going forward due diligence will take place mapping the supply chain to asses' particular product of geographical risks of modern slavery.

Our preferred suppliers will be contacted to confirm their commitment to the prevention of human trafficking and slavery. They will be asked to provide a statement explaining the actions taken by them to avoid human trafficking and slavery within their organisations. New service suppliers will be subject to screening.

The group will take steps against suppliers who do not meet the required standard, for example asking them to act to improve and terminating the business relationship if that required improvement is not forthcoming.

Performance Indicators

The key performance indicators (KPIs) will be the responses from our preferred suppliers being and continuing to be satisfactory regarding the prevention and commitment against modern human trafficking and slavery.

This statement will be reviewed annually by our Management Team. The management team are responsible for anti-slavery initiatives, the implementation of policies, risk assessments, due diligence and identification of any training required of key employees.
